

LEADERSHIP OF COMMUNITY AND NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS MINOR

2016-2017

The Leadership of Community and Nonprofit Organizations minor is designed to strengthen major areas of study for those students who wish to pursue careers as community leaders in primarily nonprofit organizations. Courses offer an examination of the planning, implementation and valuation of the partnerships, leadership styles, organizational systems and other resources needed for effective management of community programs.

A minor in Leadership of Community and Nonprofit Organizations (LNCO) requires 18 semester credit hours (6 courses) chosen from the listed courses with at least 3 different areas represented and all students are required to complete PACS 4200, Leadership Theory and Practice for Volunteer Managers and PACS 4300, Nonprofit Leadership Capstone. In addition to earning a minor, students also have the opportunity to earn a certificate in Volunteer and Community Resource Management. Students wishing to minor in LCNO or earn the American Humanics certificate in Nonprofit Management should consult the LCNO Academic Advisor Trey Anderson in the College of Public Affairs and Community Service for specific program requirements.

Skill application for students with a Volunteer and Community Resource Management certificate or minor:

- Ability to lead and motivate others
- Ability to analyze the effects of societal trends on programs & projects
- Program planning and evaluation
- Community resource identification
- Skills in collaborating with multiple organizations
